THE EYE AND EAR. DURING

my late tour in Europe, I obtained several new Instruments and Remedies of incalculable value in my speciality. There is now nothing known to the faculty in either hemisphere with which I am not familiar, which, combined with an extensive practice for 20 years in the city of New York, enables me to restore SIGHT and HEARING in many cases hitherto deemed hopeless. Cataract positively cured by a new method, without pair, sloo, Squinting or Cross Eyes in a few seconds. Amaurgais cured in the majority of cases.
Granulations, Ulcers, Films or Specs, and Watery Eye, invariably also, Deafness, Singing in the Ear, and Discharges, by an entirely new process. My "Treatise on the Eye" (price 50 cents), also ARTIFICIAL EYES, which move and look exactly like the natural eye, and are inserted without an operation, and all Remedies, forwarded by mail. Consultations by letter receive especial attention.

FOR SALE & RENT. FOR SALE. ON MONDAY, THE

Ist day of December Circuit Court, I will offer for sale, at public auction, in front of the court-house, in the city of Henderson, Ky., between the hours of 10 and 3 o'clock, my PLANTATION, containing 634% aeres of land. 300 acres of the tract are cleared and inclosed with a good fence. 100 acres of the above are what is designated black fiat, and weil drained. The upland lies remarkably well, and is acknowledged equal to any in this region of country. The water is excellent, and, throughout the present season (the driest ever known), there has been an ample supply of it for every purpose. The Dwelling House contains six rooms, and, with very little expense, may be rendered comfortable for a family of moderate size.
There are two good corn-cribs, a good stable, three negro cabins, besides a commodious kitchen, and three sheded tobacco-barns-easily converte! into stock houses, if desired. This Farm lies 5 miles south of Henderson, and within 2 miles of Towles' Landing, on the Ohio river, with a good road to both places.
Any one who wishes to examine the premises previous to the day of sale will apply to the undersigned.
Terms made known on the day of sale.

P. S. There are three apple orchards in full bearing.
The Land already described can be readily divided into two tracts of 317% acres, with a sufficient ame unt of timber for each tract. I nol d&x 321 R. G. FOR RENT OR LEASE. A GOOD BUSINESS STAND, with Dwelling attached, on he northwest corner of Eighth and Main streets. A argain can be had if application be made soon on the SECOND SALE OF LOTS.

SECOND SALE OF LOTS, By the Emporium Real Estate Manufacturing Company, at

THE EMPORIUM REAL ESTATE HE EMPORIUM REAL ESTATE and Manufacturing Company will hold a second sale of lots at Emporium. Pulaski county, Illinois commencing on WEDNESDAY, Nov. 19, 1856, and continuing from day to day; on which occasion ther will be offered a number of lots of various grades an locations, suitable for persons of every degree.

The town of Emporium offers advantages to mechan ics, business men and capitalists, unequaled at thime, by any location in the west; being situated upout a high bluff bank of the Ohio, six miles above its confluence with the Mississippi, always accessible for the larger steamers, with an extremely productive country transfer thaving unlimited command of materials for every branch of manufactures, and a constantly increasing demand springing up in every direction around it for manufactured articles of every description.

are now or win be in scure operation within a vishort time.

The first sale of lots by this company took place.

The first sale of lots by this company took place July last, and continued two days, when over one hu dred thousand dollars worth were sold, thus indication estimation in which the place is held.

Since the first sale, an additional portion of the pla has been laid out into lots embracing locations pee liarly ad pted for homes for mechanics and laborimen, being more remote from the center of business, his the immediate neighborhood of the manufacturity district, where the ground can be had at low rates, also some fine business and manufacturing stands a of which will be sold to the highest bidder, without a serve.

also some fine business and manufacturing stands all of which will be sold to the highest bidder, without reserved which will be sold to the highest bidder, without reserved without reserved to the sold in the sold; the Board of Directors reserving to themselves the privilege of discontinuing the sale, if, in their opinion, the interests of the company require it.

The health of this spot is equal to any spot on the Ohio river. The climate is mild and genial, being equally removed from the withering blasts of the north, and the noontide leats of the south.

In a word, in its facilities for all mechanical and business operations, we may safely challenge any other location in the great valley of the Mississippi.

Terms of Sale—One fourth cash in hand ithe balance in three equal annual instalments, bearing six per cent. interest per annum, from day of sale. Accrificate of purchase, executed on the day of sale, entiting the purchase rto a warrantee deed upon the full and final payment of the purchase money. TUESDAY, - NOVEMBER 4, 1856.

Proclamation by the Mayor MAYOR'S OFFICE. LOUISVILLE, KY., Nov. 1st, 1856.

To the Citizens of Louisville: In order to prevent riotous and disorderly conduct in the city at the approaching Presidential election, I have thought it proper, in the discharge of my cuties as Mayor, to issue special instruc-tions to the Chief of Police, whereby peace and Sod order may be preserved in the city; and I do now appeal to all good citizens to aid the officers in the discharge of their duties, and to give coun-tenance and support to them in their efforts to preserve the peace and quiet of the city. Especially do I appeal to and earnestly solicit all coffee-house and tavern-keepers and other venders of spirituous or malt liquors in the city limits to close their places of business on Monday afternoon preeeding the day of the election, and keep them closed till Wednesday morning following; and, during that time, to decline furnishing liquor to any one. If this is done, it will greatly contribute to a preservation of peace and good order in the city. It is likewise enjoined upon all parents and guardians to keep their children away from the places of voting; if not kept away, and they should be in any way disorderly, or their assemblage in numbers around the polls should have a tendency to ob-struct voters in the exercise of their right of suffrage, they will be arrested and imprisoned. peace of the city must be preserved. Law and order must prevail. To secure this, provision has been made, and force will be resorted to if milder means will not suffice.

JOHN BARBEE, Mayor.

I cordially concur in the recommendation of the Mayor of the city of Louisville above made, and think it proper to add that the instructions and suggestions of the Mayor, as far as becomes my dutyas Chief of Police of the city, shall be honestly and faithfully carried out.

JAMES KIRKPATRICK,

Chief of Police.

The future of Louisville depends a great deal on the events of the next twenty-four hours. We have on hand several important enterprises that are essential to her interests and prosperity. Their success depends on the value of Louisville securities. The enormities perpetrated here have damaged her credit, and another day's reign of terror will sink it to a ruinous depreciation. It will be idle for us to offer securities in the market, they will not be accepted at any price. Indeed, if capitalists knew that legal voters of this city were warned to keep away from the polls, and that hundreds leave the city from apprehensions of personal danger, they would pause before risking gations in market. A city that tramples under foot law and order; that is governed by the higher law of ruffianism, in spite of police, and in spite of public opinion, is not fit to be trusted; it demonstrates its unfitness for self-government. It is shocking to think that we live in a community where the right of suffrage is at the mercy of a rule; who, with hellish audacity, dare to say that men shall not vote who have the right to do so by the constitution and laws of Kentucky. We have the constitution and laws of Kentucky. We have sunk to the level of a Mexican rabble, if such things are tolerated; and need a master, instead that IF HE DENIES ASKING ME of an opportunity for self-government that we boast of. We have had fair warning, and if the opinion of the public will not secure a peaceful slection now, we can give no security for the future that no same man can trust.

There is another result likely to happen, however peaceful the city may be to-day, that will exhibit a sorry show for this city; and that is a small vote. We may stand on the record little ahead, in population, of our younger neighbors, New Albany and Indianapolis; that is about the figure we have cut lately; and we have some apprehensions that it will not be much improved today. It will hardly be worth while to say that devoted will be decided to-day, we omit the our vote was not out; for we can give but one reason for it, and that will be almost as much to dreds of other patriotic spirits who devoted themour discredit as a riot. The public will naturally selves to the canvass, we shall be indebted for ask, where was the vote of Louisville, that it was not at the polls? One reason can be given, and lot box to-day. but one, and that is, that apprehensions and threats of violence disgusted some with the pretense of the right of suffrage at all, and deterred others from its exercise. The inference will be, the name. Men have the sacred record of Amerithat a city thus under a reign of terror must de- can citizenship, but it is no protection against cline in her population and resources. This is miscreants, who descerate the name American just the showing we are likely to make. It will The seal of this great republic is no protection be impossible, with all the assurances that can be these times against lawless violence. given, to get all our votes to the polls, especially after the incendiary address of Marshall Saturday night. Still, if peace is preserved, and the polls kept free and open to the legal voters of Louisville, much will be accomplished. We shall be on since his suspension from the Episcopacy in 1844. the road of improvement, at least, and can promise The Philadelphia Bulletin, which furnishes a full better for the future.

We expect peace to-day, notwithstanding the indications that have been heretofore. The people of Louisville are sick of the higher law of rowdies and cut-throats; the reign of bowie knives and brass knuckles, of the importation of vagabonds to beat and butcher her citizens and burn up her property; but if, notwithstanding the desire of all good men for peace, and the security of the right of suffrage, we cannot have it, let the consequences fall where they belong. The world ice per day. The ice is made in cakes of six by will know where to place it. The Democrati party have made every offer that a minority are called upon to make. They are not responsible for the peace of this city; they could make no organization to protect the polls, that would not be outside of the law. If they had the civil authorities of this city they would keep the peace, as it has been kept in every city under Democratic rule. Philadelphia and Cincinnati have Demo cratic authorities, and no party has uttered a or that any vote was suppressed; no individuals were allowed to travel about and threaten legal voters that if they were seen at the polls they would be killed; or that they would not be allowed to vote. No such occurrences have happened in Democratic cities; although in some of them there are far more of the worst material lection, then the world will see the contrast be really rule America, and where a party that as sumes to be American, undertakes the business or ruling. The city authorities are earnestly de irous of peace and fairness, and well they may for we would not have to meet the public indignation they will encounter, if they allow violence and fraud here to-day, for all these officers will ever be worth. There goes the Mayor, or one of the police of Louisville, on the fourth of Novem-ber, 1856; will point the finger of scorn from one condition of things in Louisville is well understood all over this State and elsewhere, and cannot be disguised. The public know who is responsible and will place the guilt where it belongs.

Let us have peace, then, and a fair election : o make up our minds to surrender the interests and prosperity of this city to a malignant fate. We shall find it hard enough to recover from the past, without heaping additional calamities on our heads. Most earnestly now do we insist upon law and order, whilst the evil may be prevented. Another bloody day, another election followed by funerals, and a stampede of our population may be expected with certainty, and the credit of Louisville will not be worth fifty cents in the dollar. Her water-works and railroads had just as well be abandoned for this generation. We certainly have no credit or resources to throw away, in the presence of our rival cities advancing with rapid strides in wealth and population.

We are aware that no such considerations have weight with men who have nothing of character or property to lose; but there is certainly virtue enough in Louisville in all parties and all classes to save her from such calamities.

It cannot be disguised that a feverish anxiety, as to the peace of this city on Tuesday next, exists, and not without reason. We believe that effectual means are in progress to put down any disturbance; but some practical suggestions will occur:

1. We hope no one, whose right to vote is really questionable, will offer to vote at all.

2. Men who do not belong to a precinct should ot crowd the polls; nor should any one obstruct the way of access to the polls after he has voted. 3. Men should not be allowed to take possession of the polls, as has been done heretofore, before the judges are on hand. 4. It is obvious that no outside interference with the rights of a voter should be allowed. The judges are alone competent to decide whether a man is a voter or not. . 5. The legal voters will crowd to get in their votes as fast as possible; but strangers who have no residence in Louisville, and no right of suffrage here, should be prevented from crowding the

6. All coffee-houses should be closed on Tues day, and kept closed until next morning. 7. Drunken and disorderly persons should arrested promptly and taken to jail. 8. Parents and guardians should keep minor at home; for they are usually at the beginning of a riot.

9. All good citizens should offer their services to the Mayor until the number is fully sufficient

10. The order at the polls should be published on the morning of the election, and the names of the posse at each police.

We need not say that any attempt to take the polls, or drive away legal voters by violence, or to the central line of Preston thence with said elbow them off from the exercise of their rights, will put an end to the most laudable efforts to keep the peace, and on the heads of the party guilty of such infamy will rest all the consequences that follow.

We know that the people of Kentucky are looking to this city with indignant apprehensions. No excuse for a mob will be taken. The authorities here will be held accountable, and they cannot plead that they were taken unawares, or that they had not the force necessary. They will have the co-operation of all good men in Louisville. We believe now we shall have peace; but let no

THE PRECINCTS. For the information of voters, we furnish a copy f the ordinance prescribing the number and boundaries of wards in the city, as also the places of voting designated by law. In the First and Eighth Wards there are two precincts; the boundaries of these precincts are as clearly defined as those of the various wards, and voters are restricted to their immediate precincts in those

The First Ward is composed of all that part of the city lying east of a central line of Hancock street. Places of voting-Bourbon House and Lafayette engine house.

The Second Ward is that part of the city bounded as follows: Beginning at the river in the central line of Hancock street, thence down the river central line to the central line of Jefferson, thence with the same to the central line of Floyd, thence with the same and the same line continued south wardly to the city limits, thence with the city limits to the central line of Hancock street, thence with the same to the beginning. Place of voting Kentucky engine house.

The Third Ward is composed of that part o the city lying between the central line of First street, and the lower or westwardly line of the Second Ward, as described above. Place of voting-Hope engine house.

The Fourth Ward is composed of all that part of the city lying between the central line of First street, and the central line of Third street. Place of voting-Mechanic engine house. The Fifth Ward is that part of the city lying etween the central line of Third street, and the central line of Fifth street. Place of voting-Washington engine house. The Sixth Ward is that part of the city lying between the central line of Fifth street, and the central line of Seventh street. Place of voting-Court house. The Seventh Ward is all that part of the city lying between the central line of Seventh and the central line of Tenth street. Place of voting -Relief engine house. The Eighth Ward is all that part of the lying west of the central line of Tenth street, including Shippingport and Portland. There are three precincts in the Eighth Ward-the Rescue engine house and the City School House in Portand. There is also an extra precinct in the Eighth Ward at an eligible point in Eleventh street, between Main and Market. FREE LOVER'S PARADISE.—In Persia, males are

A sofa with big rolling arms, like a fat aunt's shoulders, under which two ample pillows like babies snuggled, with elevated back and round stomach, the whole covered with flowered chiniz, where birds and beasts congregated, and Chinese pagodas, piled ander the shade of waving plantains—a moologial, geographical, and botanical chart, for the study of the children in the family, especially at prayer-time; a sofa ample enough to sit—not com-panionless—with the fairy shape of eighteen, or panioness—with the larry snape of eighteen, or when, by a freak of nature, some twenty-five years later, expanded into full blown dimensions; a so-fa good for lolling or napping; a sofa on which you stayed, instead of bounding off like an India rubstayed, instead of bounding on the an india rub-ber ball when you struck; where you sunk with a feeling of warm security, "making your mark" as you came out of it—not sliding about on hair like an eel on an icepond, or dislocating your spine or collar bone in the process of making yourself easy; no—instead, it ombodied your idea of social comfort, whether enjoyed tete-a-tete, individually or collectively; inducing a feeling of affectionate-ness towards it, that remained with you through life, from the time it told its whispering love tales, to the hour it cosily nested your babies in its downy corners; a sofa, to a New Englander, asso-ciated with his childhood and maturity, with grandmothers and great-grandmothers; with his maiden elderly relatives and old fussy uncles, and all the big and little connections that had ever apped on it, tumbled it, and shook it into shape

GREAT FIRE IN NORFOLK, VA .- By a slip from the office of the Norfolk Herald, we learn that a destructive fire occurred in that town on Sunday morning, involving a loss of $70,000 or $80,000 worth of property. We quote from the slip as follows:

The fire was discovered about 2½ o'clock by an issue of smoke from the door of a cooking-room connected with the restaurant under the large four story china store and dwelling of James Barry, Esq. (formerly the "Steamboat Hotel"), at the northeast corner of Market Square and Union street. Persons who first saw the smoke proceeded immediately to break open the door of the cutsing, when a volume of dense smoke and flame rushed out; and it was discovered that the flames had not only full possession of the room, but the and not only full possession of the room, but the stairway which furnished the only avenue of es-cape to the street for the family above! Their cries of terror and distress on being awakened to their awful and perilous condition may well be conceived but not described. Half suffocated with muoke from every direction they hurried with only their night-clothes to the portice, and im-plored the assistance of those below to save them. Ladders were immediately brought by some of our active and noble-hearted firemen, and in a few minutes they were all landed in safety on the pavement—Mr. and Mrs. Barry, and fourteen or teen others, including eight servants.

The time at which the fire broke out was mos unfortunate. Half the male population of the city had been exercised to a late hour of the night at political meetings, most of whom had probably only been asleep for a brief period—indeed at that hour the whole city might be said to deed at that nour the whole city might be said to have been buried in profound slumber.

The principal sufferers are J. D. Gordan, E. R. Gale, Wm. Johnson, E. Gurney & Co., and Grifth & Wilson. The entire loss is between seventy and eighty thousand dollars.

CONFIDENCE IN ONE'S SELF .- When a crisis be falls you, and the emergency requires moral courage and noble manhood to meet it, be equal to the requirements of the moment, and rise superior to the obstacles in your path. The universal testimony of men whose experience exactly coincides with yours, farnishes the consoling reflection that difficulties may be ended by oppsition. There is no blessing equal to the possession of a stout heart. The magnitude of the danger needs nething more than a greater effort the covernothing more than a greater effort than ever at your hands. If you prove recreant in the hour of trial, you are the worst of recreants, and deserve no compassion. Be not dismayed nor unnanned, when you should be bold and daring nflinching and resolute. Tennessee all Right!

A dispatch from a member of the National Committee, dated Nashville, 3d inst., received late last night, assures us that Tennessee is safe for five thousand votes. This is cheering to our people, but we have always claimed Tennessee a certain for Buchanan and Breckinridge.

It cannot be doubted that the city authori ties will be able to preserve the city from the violence of a miserable band of free-booters, if they are so disposed. And who can doubt their sencerity after the earnest protestations they have made? We believe that election day will pass in peace, and so restore to Louisville the good name she once enjoyed.

Sundry rumors of organizations to distur! the peace and harmony of some of the county precints, were current in some circles yesterday. We do not strach any importance to such statements: for it can not be possible that men having no right to vote in the county, would leave the city to create dista Thances at polls where all the legal voters are well k nown to both political parties.

Consistency .- One of our Methodist ministers had his residence ill uminated as the Knew-Nothing procession passed l'ast night. Whoever heard of a Catholic priest illuminating in honor of a political fets? And yet these fe lows talk of "political popery," and such like nons. nse, while our Protestant ministers thus publicly en gage in the trickery and flummery of a miserable faction.

Some of our friends called in upon us las night, to know whether the procession marching through the streets were attending Sam's funeral or not. No! Sam dies with the setting sun today, and will be buried in the ballot-box so deep that the hand of resurrection can never reach

The Transparent Procession.

Our Hindoo friends determined to have a blow it last night. The official sinecures and hungry expectants had devoted a fortnight to the labor of preparation, and, as might be expected, more or less display was made. The display, however fell far short of that which we were promised, and we thus publicly express our disappointment.

The procession was headed by an individual well known in this community, bearing a blazing torch, which circumstance, taken in connection with a prominent transparency, "The 6th of August, 1855, the dawn of a new era in Louisville," may be considered significant. It is due to our mechanics to state that many of the transparencies were made in Cincinnati.

The orthography, in many instances, was very disreditable, and the style in which the word "country" was elaborated, amused a great many credit than that entertained by Louisville mechanics.

The absence of the usual ardor and enthusiasm was very observable. It is true that the procession abounded with unruly boys, but the blackguards and ruffians did not seem to predominate. Taken as a whole, the display was not at all imposing, though it may seem very creditable as the last grand fizzle of a dying faction.

Regular Louisville and Nashville Packet.

We are glad to observe by an advertisement in ur columns to-day, that the steamer Diamond. under the command of Capt. W. R. Hollcroft, willupon the resumption of navigation, take her place as a regular packet in the Cumberland river trade. In the absence of railroad communication, it is to the interest of every shipper, to encourage this regular line. The trade between our city and Nashville, and along the Cumberland river, s considerable-and would be largely increased if certain reliable facilities of intercommunication were kept up. The Diamond is an excellent boat, commanded by an experienced Captain, and well manned throughout. We hope that merchants, shippers, and passengers, will at once see the advantage of sustaining this packet, as its continuance as a regular packets will subserve their own interests, and facilitate trade generally.

THEATER.-There was a very fair audience resent last night, considering the excitement elsewhere; and all who were present, were delighted. Mr. Chapfrau's William, in the drama f "Black-eyed Susan," was a very excellent performance, giving unquestionable pleasure; while Mrs. Wilkin's Susan, was very well done indeed. In the "Pleasant Neighbor," Miss Albertine's Nancy Strap was a charming personation-very natural and pretty; and Wood Benson's Christy was mirth-provoking in the extreme. The other parts, in both pieces, were well done We could not stay to see "New York." The bill for to-night is a good one, including "In and out of Place" and "New York as it Is," and we exeet will draw a full house.

This "forlorn hope" of the Know-Nothing faction, was the amusing feature of the terch-light recession last night. It is creditable to them that they were not ambitious to be seen or heard; the lights which they carried were few and far is made from the purest materials, from a recipe between, and their enthusiasm was nowhere. Poor broughtfrom Russia—of articles growing in that country—and the proprietors have letters from all tion of their countrymen, the confidence of all classes, clerrymen, physicians, seacaptains, nurses, and others who have used it themselves, and recight-thinking men, and, worse than all, their own fellows! having lost the esteem of the better por-

An OLD OFFENDER .- A fellow by the name of John Young, very familiar to the police, was before the City Court yesterday morning, charged with disorderly conduct, and, among other things, with breaking open an oyster chest, belonging to a German confectioner, and helping himself to the contents. Mesers. Editors.—A man by the name of Moseley was killed with a shot gun last night about one o'clock, near Joe Able's residence, by a villain one o'clock, near Joe Able's residence, by a villain who said his name was Harris, but known by others as Morgan. The murderer came, he said, from Vicksburg about two weeks ago with his wife, and stopped on Joe Able's premises, in a small house formerly occupied by Dr. DeWitt. About a week ago he left home and went over on Crawley's Ridge, and from thence went towards White River. He was gone two nights, when he returned and stopped nagr Dr. [chob's. turned, and stopped near Dr. Cobb's. That same night he went up to the Doctor's place and stole enough corn to feed his two horses, and also took some clothing belonging to the Doctor, among which was a vest. Dr. Cobb and Mr. Halloway "country" was elaborated, amused a great many persons. With a remembrance of the manner in which they were treated on a former occasion, our mechanics advised those who were prominent in procuring the paraphernalia, to apply to persons who had a higher estimate of Know-Nothing which was a vest. Dr. Cobb and Mr. Halloway went down that night, and the Doctor saw his vest on the fellow. He told him he had stolen it, and on the next day took him before a magistrate, who committed him into the hands of the sheriff. That night he succeeded in making his escape, and made for home in Crittenden county. Mr. Mosely followed him to Blackfish, but the fellow. low slipped across while all were asleep, stole a mule, and left. Yesterday morning Mr. Mose-ley followed him home, got a crowd, but couldn't find him. Last night that gentleman, Mr. John McClung, and Mr. Berry, went to the fellows' house to watch him. They found him in the wood near his house, and attempted to arrest him, when he fired at Mosely and killed him, eight buck-shot entering the lungs and heart.

We learn the murderer was afterwards shot, and when our informant left, little hopes were en-and when our interest tertained of his recovery.

HORRIBLE CRUELTY OF AN AMALGAMATIONIST. The Lockport (N. Y.) Journal reports a case of most outrageous and horrible crueity, which oc-curred in that village on Tuceday last. A little boy, five years old, son of Mrs. Story, was reasted alive by a fiend in human shape, named Craig, whose husband was a negro, she being white. The evidence before the Coroner's jury showed that the parties lived in the same house, and that during the absence of the mother of the lad, the woman Craig took the boy from its own apart-ment, carried it into her own room, and held it in the fire until its legs and bowels were burned nearly to a cinder; with Satanic fiendishness, the body of the child was reversed by the marderess, until its back was reasted to a crisp. The child lingered in an unconscious state until Thursday.

THE TURF-QUEEN CITY RACE COURSE .- The rotting match on Saturday, between the old ivals, William Wood and Lady Kate, two mile eats to harness, resulted in favor of the gelding who won in two straight heats. The wind blevalmost a hurricane, which with the heavy track old decidedly against the mare. Considering all hings, the time made was not bad. We under tand that the owner of Kate will, if agreeable t his opponent, try it over again.

NEW YORK, Oct. 30. It is important that those who send the election eturns to send the whole number of votes cast or the electors of each Presidential candidate. fajorities are not sufficient. In cases where it is possible to send promptly complete returns by ates or counties, send as nearly full returns as possible, and a careful estimate of the balance.

The editors throughout the country will greatly facilitate the collection of the returns of the important election next week, by publishing the above notice every day until Tuesday.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 3. The Times, a Republican paper, asserts that Andrew Stewart, Joseph H. Kubns, Wm. W. Smith, L. Duffield, Charles F. Wells, and John Miles, have withdrawn their names from the Fillmore electoral ticket; and also publishes a card, signed Andrew Stewart, to a friend, advis-ing him to vote the Union ticket, with Fill-more at the head, as, if you vote the straight Fillmore ticket, you throw away your vote, and thereby promote the election of Buchanan. Kenneth Raynor, of North Carolina, has delivered two powerful speeches recommending all friends of Fillmore to vote the Union ticket. His seech on Saturday night is published in all the more papers, though they still publish the straight Fillmore ticket to-day.
